

The water quality of a port is synonymous with sustainability and respect for the environment.

That is why the Port Authority of Valencia collects floating waste from the water every day using a Pelican cleaning vessel, the LIMPIAMAR.

Solid waste collected is managed in accordance with the regulations in force.

Care for the sea,
because water quality
affects us all.

